Glass Plant To Use Northern Silica Sands

Silica sands of the Peace River area this fall will begin to play an important role in the economy of western Canada.

In October, Western Canada's first glass fibre plant, the Peace River Glass Co. Ltd. at Fort Saskatchewan, for the first time will make use of the Peace River sands in turning out such products as pipe wrapping, pipe insulation, roofing materials, staple fibre yarn for woven fabrics and decorative and surfacing mats for the plastic industry.

Until now, the thin glass rods used in the manufacture of the company's products have come from England, and have made possible production of about 60 tons of glass fibre products per month.

EXPANDING

When the company completes the setting-up of its own melting production will climb to 100 tons per month. At the same time, a second unit for the manufacture of pipe insulation will go into operation.

Peace River Glass began operations in Edmonton in 1955, after a syndicate of Edmontonians approached Werner Schuller, a German manufacturer who had moved to England after the Second Great War, to set up a second company in that country.

Letter To The Editor

May we be given space to reply to Mr. Handford's letter in your issue of July 17.

We can lump together several statements in the letter, namely, "The so-called reply . . . was just a bunch of eye-wash to mislead the producers of Alberta;" "This whole scheme is hatched up in the minds of a few . . . to create nice positions for them and their friends at higher salaries . . ." "This vote is the first step of a small group of people who want absolute dictatorship."

We think such statements are unfortunate. They are not constructive, and appear to be intended only to create suspicion and distrust.

"This whole scheme" is the result of years of study by our farm organization. In the Hand Book of the Farmers' Union of Alberta there appears this statement of policy. "The marketing of farm products should be done by producer-controlled marketing boards . . ." The Alberta Federation of Agriculture has been working for an Egg Marketing Board since 1936. The present Egg Marketing committee has as members the president of the Farmers' Union, the secretary of the AFA, the president of the Alberta Poultry Producers, and the president of the Alberta Poultry Federation — all officially charged by their organizations to work for the establishment of an Egg Marketing Board. Does this sound like a "scheme hatched up in the minds of a few?" Alberta farmers know better.

Mr. Handford then goes on to say that " . . . this movement . . . is a definite threat to our way of life." If he means that is a threat to a marketing system which is not concerned with whether or not the producer gets the cost of production—a system which gives the producer no voice whatever in the marketing of his own produce—then Mr. Handford is right!

W. J. HARPER,
Alberta Egg Marketing Committee.

LABOR MINISTER PROMISES QUICK ACTION ON EMPLOYMENT PLANS

OTTAWA — Labor Minister Starr promised "quick action" by the federal government on "feasible" suggestions placed before the National Winter Employment Conference to help solve winter unemployment.

The conference, attended by representatives of industry, business, labor and all levels of government received proposals from four study groups.

The study groups recommended that the government play a greatly expanded role and spend more money in creating conditions which will provide winter work.

Mr. Starr said many of the suggestions were of "a constructive and practical nature." They would be carefully scrutinized.

ASK FOR INCENTIVES

The main recommendation was that the federal government take the lead in providing incentives to create winter work. Accelerated depreciation to encourage greater capital outlays in winter and increased publicity and advertising to stimulate wintertime home construction and repair were suggested.

The groups also urged further studies of the exact nature of winter unemployment.

During the afternoon two delegates attacked a summary prepared by the four study groups of their main recommendations.

George S. Mooney, executive director, Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities, said the summary was "insipid, ineffective and inaccurate." It was no "clarion call' to the people to rise and do something about winter unemployment.

HON. MICHAEL STARR

"PALE IMITATION"

William Dodge, executive vice-president of the Canadian Congress of Labor, said the summary was a "pale imitation" of what was contained in the reports the groups made to the conference. He hoped the government would take cognizance of the reports and not the the summary.

Mr. Starr said he and other conference delegates were as anxious as Mr. Dodge to find a remedy for winter unemployment. There would be quick action on some of the recommendations in the reports.

Canadian Justice Comes To Aid Of Immigrant

NEWMARKET, Ont. — Hungarian immigrant Stanley Nagy, 20, sat down to his first square meal in three days with a warm spot in his heart for Canadian justice.

Nagy appeared in magistrate's court in this town, 20 miles north of Toronto, on a vagrancy charge. He could speak little English, had no money and his last meal was a bowl of soup.

Hearing his story, Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake ordered the prisoner given a meal at York County's expense. Chatting with Nagy, the magistrate learned he had just hitchhiked from British Columbia looking for work. He had a promise of a job from a chicken farmer but had been unable to locate the farm.

Magistrate Hollinrake gave Nagy $5 to tide him over and found the farm for him. Now Nagy has a home and a job paying $45 a week.

Bowness Boy Top Teenage Driver

EDMONTON — A 19-year-old youth from Bowness, has been judged Canada's top teen-age driver.

Marvin Dutnall—whose father is chief of police in Bowness—won first prize in the annual teen-age road-e-o at Medicine Hat Saturday—beating out 11 other competitors from all parts of Canada.

His prize is a one-thousand dollar scholarship to any college of his choice—presented by the All-Canada Insurance Federation.

Marvin will enter the University of Alberta this fall to start studying for a degree in commerce.

Two Ontario drivers were runners-up to young Dutnall. Russell Loop of Leamington, Ont. took second place and won a scholarship of five hundred dollars and Douglas Uberig of Elmira, Ont. was awarded a two-hundred-and-fifty-dollar scholarship for third place.

The three-day competition — which involved both written and practical tests—was held in Medicine Hat this year because of its wonderful traffic record—the city has gone 13-hundred-and-38-days without a traffic fatality.

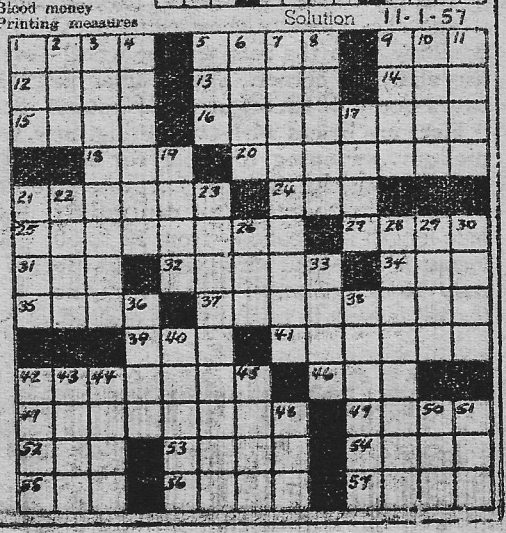
Solution 11-1-57



THE Homemaker

By EDITH WHITNEY

A crisp, colorful vegetable or fruit salad is one of the most appealing dishes to serve during this sweltering summer. Probably no other food you prepare offer all the possibilities of the salad. It may be a large bowl of crisp greens, a trim shining jellied mold or a plate of crisp, tasty miblets. Whatever your choice is, one of its success secrets is the ingredients.

Ingredients should be selected with an eye to appetizing color combinations. Be careful, for example of mixing different shades of red as in tomatoes and radishes. Use crisp foods with soft ones to create texture contrast. Don't be afraid to experiment with new combinations and do vary the dressings.

Now for a tasty mold try this:

Rhubard Salad Mold

5 cups red rhubard cut in ½" pieces
¼ cup water
2/3 cup sugar
1 T. unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water

Measure the rhubard, water and sugar into a saucepan, cover, bring slowly to a boil, then boil gently until rhubarb is very tender. Meanwhile soak gelatin in the ¼ cup cold water. Sieve rhubarb and stir the pulp obtained. Measure out 1½ cups of pulp and add to the gelatin. Stir and reheat if necessary to dissolve the gelatin. Set in individual molds until firm. This may be varied in flavor by cooking ¼ cup of fresh saskatoons with the rhubarb.

Western Oil Firms Quake

NEW YORK (UPI) — The overthrow of Iraq's pro-Western government casts a shadow on the more than three billion dollars that western oil companies have invested in the boiling Middle East.

The big fear in London and New York oil circles is that the pro-Egyptian army officers who seized control of the oil-rich Arab state may nationalize the oil industry.

Iraq ranks as the fourth biggest oil producer in the Middle East and the seventh largest in the world. One of the two major oil pipelines in the area originates in Iraq's oil fields.

The sole producing company in Iraq is the huge Iraq Petroleum Co., owned by American, British and French interests. The two American companies involved — Standard Oil (New Jersey) and Socony Mobil Oil Co. — control around 23¾ per cent of Iraq's annual oil production, which runs around 220 million barrels.

Oil men point out that the Middle East is vital to the free world's economic and military strength because it contains 70 percent of the world's known oil deposits.

Military leaders have warned in the past that if the free world is ever deprived of this oil its military potential will be seriously weakened.

CUTTING HUGE BIRTHDAY CAKE DELIGHTS PRINCESS MARGARET

NANAIMO, B.C.—Princess Margaret went on a scenic tour and cut a gigantic birthday cake to climax her triumphal tour of Vancouver Island.

Thousands of residents turned out to cheer the royal cavalcade as it wound along the picturesque island highway between here and Victoria. And the princess charmed them all.

At Nanaimo, she used the ceremonial sword of British Columbia's Lieutenant-Governor Frank Ross to cut a beautiful cake weighing 10,000 pounds. She took three pieces of it with her—one for herself, one for Prince Charles and one for Princess Anne.

Later, Princess Margaret flew from nearby Cassidy airport to the RCAF air base at Comox, 50 miles northwest of here, to board a C-5 plane for Vancouver.

The princess began her motor tour of the island after leaving her Victoria hotel five minutes early so that she could walk among girl guides, brownies and rangers who lined up for hours Monday and then missed the princess when her car passed too quickly.

So enthralled was Princess Margaret by the huge cake, marking British Columbia's 100th birthday, that she monentarily forgot the dignitaries she was to meet as she stepped from her car.

The way to get rid of a friend who wants to borrow some money is to lend him money; you won't see him again for a long, long time.

Things planned in secrecy usually deserve a place in the limelight.

Death Duties Tax Reduced

OTTAWA — The Progressive Conservative government's streamlined legislation on death duties received first Commons reading Thursday. Cutting tax levies slightly, it exempts from taxation all estates of $50,000 and under.

The bill is intended to replace the present Dominion Succesion Duty Act and provides for fully deductible exemption of $60,000 to a widow, plus $10,00 for each dependent child.

It is expected to cut revenue from death duties — $71,600,000 last year—by $7,000,000.

Seek To Cut Job Layoffs

OTTAWA— A national winter employment conference heard a labor appeal for prompt federal action to lick the seasonal jobless problem.

A university professor added a plea that any program undertaken be within the context of the free enterprise system.

William Dodge, executive vice-president of the 1,100,000-member Canadian Labor Congress asked the government to say now specifically what it plans to do. Fast action was needed.

43 CANADIANS SAID IN IRAQ

OTTAWA — Forty-three Canadians are known to be in Iraq.

An external affairs department spokesman said that of the 43 registered with the British Embassy in Iraq, 39 reside in the capital of Baghdad and four reside in Kirkuk in the country's northern sector.

Labor To Study Unemployment

A five-man committee on unemployment has been formed by the Edmonton and District Labor Council.

The committee, chosen at a recent council meeting, will study unemployment in Edmonton and district and work with other groups in combatting the problem.

On the committee are Dave Graham, William Gray, Ted Stilwell, John Hart and George Rankel.

In another move, the council voted to petition the Canadian Labor Congress to ask the federal government for an immediate study on winter unemployment insurance payments.

The council felt that many persons facing unemployment next winter will not be able to collect insurance benefits, having not worked long enough this summer after last winter's layoff.

The council also passed a resolution asking the Alberta government to make illegal injunctions issued without prior notice to the party affected.

In its resolution, the council said it was a principle of criminal and civil law that a person must be given notice of any action to be taken against him so he may prepare his defence.

Learn Fate Of Two Missing 19 Years

OTTAWA—The fate of the first two RCAF casualties of the Second World War has been uncovered in a wooded area of New Brunswick after 19 years of mystery.

An RCAF search and rescue team went into the area about 40 miles north of Fredericton Sunday to bring back the remains of the victims and try to discover the cause of their fatal crash Sept. 14, 1939.

The two men aboard the single-engine Northrop Delta aircraft were pilot Flt. Sgt. J. E. Doan and LAC D. A. Rennie, his crewman.

Air force records show their mothers are Mrs. Vera G. Doan of Toronto and Mrs. David Rennie of Ottawa.

Oil Pipeline Draws Further Opposition

TORONTO—A suggested crude oil pipeline stretching the 2,000 miles from Edmonton to Montreal seemed more remote as the Borden commission on energy ended its Toronto hearings.

A third oil company opposed the pipeline at closing hearings and a pipeline construction company said it would be cheaper to use a present line linking the Alberta fields and Toronto.

British Petroleums (Canada) Limited joined Shell and Imperial in saying a pipeline feeding Alberta oil to the Montreal market would be uneconomical. Like the other companies BP said Canada's natural oil markets are in the United States.

Alberta District News In Brief

Council Discusses Water Softener; Declares Civic Holiday, Aug. 4

The regular meeting of the council of the town of Redwater was held in the town office.

Present were Mayor Nick Syrnyk and Councillors Walker, Turner, Malowany, Stetsko and Bykewich. Councillor Antoniuk was absent on holidays.

The secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting and the minutes from the court of revision. The financial statement was also presented. All were accepted as read.

First business of the meeting was a short discussion on the proposed water softener. The secretary-treasurer informed the meeting that Mr. Hogg of the Provincial Sanitary Engineer's office had stated that the permit from the Department of Public Health would be forthcoming.

Councillor Turner stated "that in his opinion, as soon as permission had been received from the Board of Public Utlity Commissioners, and an agreement reached with Imperial Oil Ltd., then the entire project should be turned over to Associated Engineering Co. Ltd. for the specifications and consulting work."

Mr. Gee, the town assessor, has informed the town that the water softening plant would not be liable for taxation if owned by the town of Redwater.

Councillor Stetsko reported regarding the locations and number of culverts which should be installed to handle the annual spring run-off of water. Councillor Walker then moved that all culverts requested by the Public Works Committee should be ordered immediately by the secretary-treasurer so that the work could be done while the weather is favorable.

The bid of $1960 for coating the inside of the two water storage tanks was considered to be a little on the high side and further inquiries will be made through other firms in this line of work.

Councillor Bykewich presented the motion that Aug. 4 be declared a Civic Holiday and that this holiday be advertised in the local press. Owing to the holiday, the next council meeting will be held on Aug. 1 to allow the town secretary to take one week's vacation.

The town office will be closed from Aug. 5 to 11.

Councillor Stetsko brought up the annual problem of weeds on the town property, etc. It was suggested that a commercial spraying contractor be hired to spray the weeds. However, the commercial outfits have such heavy commitments that they are unable to undertake the work. The town secretary will hire a man with a mower to cut the weeds.

A suggestion was set forth that the remaining gravel in the town stockpile be spread on the streets.

The pipes in the culverts for thawing purposes will be checked and braced if possible. The road committee will have Wosnacks clean the main ditches.

Some discussion took place regarding a proposition from the County of Thorhild re ¼ mile of road east of town at a cost of $1000. It was moved that the Public Works Committee watch the progress of the road building, and if in their opinion the town should have their ¼ mile rebuilt, they have the authority to order the work done to the maximum value of $1000.

Would-Be Thieves Attack Farmer

A 50-year-old Morcambe farmer escaped serious injury in a holdup attempt at his home near Two Hills, 80 miles east of Edmonton.

Ernest Dahl told R.C.M.P. that he answered a knock at his door at 3 a.m. when voices called to say that there had been an accident and help was needed.

Opening the door he was jumped by three men who covered his head with a blanket and tied him up with a belt.

Going into the house the men smashed open a small safe which they ransacked. Finding no cash, they scattered his papers all over the house, dismantled his car motor and left.

Freeing himself, Dahl walked two miles to report the incident to R.C.M.P. at Two Hills.

Canadian Utilities Starts 21-Mile Section Vegreville To Willingdon

Construction has commenced this week on a 69,000 volt transmission line from Vegreville to Willingdon. The 21-mile line is being built by Canadian Utilities Limited at a cost of $150,000.

The 40-foot single pole structures being erected by a 28-man crew under supervision of Steve Krushka, will form the first part of what will eventually be a second power source for the Bonnyville district and the Cold Lake airport. These centres are now served by a line running north from Vermilion.

A substation is under construction four miles northwest of Bonnyville. The transmission line will be built as far as Willingdon this summer and probably extended to the new substation next year.

The Vegreville - Willingdon line is part of an overall program initiated by the company to meet the rapidly increasing power demand in the Vegreville district. Earlier this year the construction crew were building a 55-mile transmission line from Vegreville to Vermilion.

Of H-frame construction this line will carry 69,000 volts, but has been built to specifications which will facilitate an efficient and speedy conversion to 138,000 volts when the need arises.

Fire Destroys Farm Garages

LAVOY— On a recent day an explosion began a fire which destroyed adjacent garages on the farm of Nick Juba, 7 miles north, 1 mile east of town. Approximately 75 feet from the house the garages contained the car, tractor, oil, grease and tools of the owner. The car was safely driven out of one of the burning garages, but the tractor was badly burned by the time it was removed.

The Vegreville fire brigade responded and kept the fire from spreading to the very near-by machine shed and house, which were in danger due to the very dry condition existing. No one was injured.

The Slender Look with NEW 110° Picture Tube

The smart Slenderline styling of the new Fairbanks-Morse cabinets is made possible by the development of the new 110° deflection picture tube. The result of years of research, this new aluminized tube has a shorter, more efficient electron gun that takes less space inside the cabinet and completely eliminates the space-stealing bulge at the back of the cabinet. Slender and compact, these handsome new F-M models are not only inches shorter, but can be placed close to the wall for balanced room arrangements.
